will break up his headquarters here, and the President's special train will leave at 10 o'clock for Frederic, Okla., where the President will board it tomorrow night. The start from Frederic will be made at 8:25 o'clock tomorrow night, and the last stop in Texas will be made at 8:30 a.m. Friday morning. No changes in the Colorado programme have been given out.

During the day, the secretary and other members of the President's party participated in a jack rabbit hunt on the Durango ranch, 16 miles north of here. After a dinner of barbecued meats, the hunting party proceeded to Blue Mound, the highest point in Tarrant county, and there Secretary Loeb planted a tree and made a brief speech. Another barbecue was given by the secretary's honor after he returned to the city, and tonight he was initiated as an honorary member of the Conquistador Order of Hoochoo. The order also elected the President to honorary membership, and conferred on him the highest distinction at its command, the mystic number of 999.

WAS HER OWN LAWYER.

Philadelphia Schoolmarin Studies Law Two Years to Plead Her Case in Court and Wins.

FOR DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES: PHILADELPHIA (Pa.) April 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Anna B. Miller, a school principal, deposed two years ago on charges of gross immorality with other teachers, got a verdict for $14,500 today in her $50,000 damage suit for slander against Dr. Charles H. Harvey, formerly president of the Twenty-fourth Sectional School Board.

It was her two years study of law and the brilliant address she delivered to the jury in her own defense, while acting as her own counsel, that had much to do with the verdict. She had devoted most careful preparation to her case, and her strong plea not only amazed the lawyers who were present in the courtroom, but evidently greatly impressed the jury. She was forced to plead her own case, because no lawyer would take it.

After her deposition, Miss Miller studied law for the purpose of preparing on her own case and clearing her name. It was evident from the full figures of the verdict that the jury took into consideration every measure of damages that Miss Miller was entitled to recover.

YOUNG MEN DIRECTORS.

Daniel Guggenheim Surprises New York Financiers by Selections of Smaller Officials.

FOR DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES: NEW YORK, April 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Some surprise was expressed when the list of directors of the American Smelters Exploration Company was announced, as it contains the names of young men who are little known in financial circles. Daniel Guggenheim, chairman of the Board of Directors, was asked for an explanation of this new departure from his usual custom. In reply he said:

"I know it is usual in choosing directors to select names well known in financial or social worlds. The office of director in prominent and successful companies is generally considered as a sinecure.

ROCKEFELLER WINS.

Prudential Committee Says it is Wrong to Condemn Him When Doing A Good Deed—Besides, Money is Half Spent.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BOSTON, April 12.—A statement was made public today by the Prudential Committee of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, which yesterday had accepted $100,000 offered to the ward by John D. Rockefeller. Two weeks ago, the Prudential Committee adopted the report of a subcommittee commanding the acceptance of the money, but in view of the strong protest made by the Congregational clergy, final action was deferred until yesterday when a report was made by a subcommittee. This report, together with that of two weeks ago, was adopted. The supplementary report, which was made public today, keeps up the objections of the protestants, and asserts that they are not sufficient to prevent the board from accepting the board.

One of the principal points raised in the report is the claim of the committee that the American board can now legally retain Mr. Rockefeller's money, because the decisions of a higher court are to the effect that states who have once accepted a gift and assumed certain obligations have no power to return the gift, and absolve themselves from these obligations. The committee holds, by returning the gift, as suggested by the protesting clergymen, the American Board would be made responsible not only to those for whose benefit the gift was designed, but also to the protestant officers, who, in their statement, referred to the fact that the board already has used a portion of Mr. Rockefeller's gift, which had been actually accepted on January 14. The committee holds at the action proposed by the protestants, namely, the return of the gift, would have been wrong, for it could have expressed disapprobation and condemnation of a man when doing an act of benevolence.

The committee says: "This would have been to confuse the public and to set contrary to the Christian spirit. To prevent any man from doing good is a wrong way in itself to condemn him for evil. It is wrong to condemn him when he is doing a good deed as it is to command him when he is doing a bad deed." The committee also contends that the board is not organized to decide questions of temperance, economy or nationalism. It is held that the return of the money would be the passing judgment upon the character of the man and the business methods he is urged to have used, and that this would be a wrong to the church of Christ.

The committee adds: "Any accusation against him could not, in Christian courtesy, be acted upon unless he had first been tried by the church which indorses him as a member in good and regular standing."

DR. GLADDEN'S COMMENT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.] COLUMBUS (O.) April 12.—When informed this afternoon of the final action of the Prudential Committee accepting the Rockefeller gift, Rev. Dr. Washington Gladden said:

"The Prudential Committee has placed itself on the broad and intelligent position that all gifts must be received, no matter what may be the character of the giver, nor by what immorality or crimes his gains may have been gathered."

"From this decision appeal will now be taken to the conscience of the Congregational Church and the conscience of Christendom."

CALIFORNIA OIL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.] TOPEKA (Kan.) April 12.—Commissioner J. R. Garfield has been gathering a great deal of oil-investigation data in Topeka. He expects to go to Chanute Thursday, where he will begin his investigations in the oil belt. After he concludes the investigation in Kansas he will proceed westward, making a brief stop in the Colorado oil fields. From there he will go on west to California, and investigate the conditions of oil production in that State.

Garfield held a conference this afternoon with General James H. W. Mudge of the Santa Fe. No statement as to the result of the conference could be secured, but it related to the suit against the Santa Fe, ignoring a conspiracy with the Standard Oil Company in the matter of oil rates. General Manager Mudge supplied the commissioner with a large amount of information as to rates on oil. Other leading railroads will wait for Garfield to understand the rights of the railroads and welcome the opportunity of telling the commissioner certain things in connection with the freight traffic in the State, as they are anxious to reach their final stage.

SPECIAL TREATY SOON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.] TANGIER (Morocco) April 12.—It is officially confirmed that Count Von Tatenhausen, who is acting as chargé d'affaires of the German Legation here, will proceed to Fez at an early date to arrange a special Morocco-German commercial treaty. The American Consul General Philip Morris cancelled his projected visit to Fez.

EMBRACES ALL GUARANTEES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.] BERLIN, April 12.—The new commercial treaty between Germany and Morocco, which is being negotiated by Dr. Von Kuehne, the German chargé d'affaires at Fez, is more than an arrangement covering coasting trade rights. It embraces all the "most favored nation" guarantees in the previous treaty. It is upon this treaty that Germany will press her resistance to France's efforts to become the predominating power in Morocco.

Secretary Taft Takes Charge of Reply to Bowen.

Expressions Contained Therein Really Insolent.

Asphalt Case Ignored by the Southern Republic.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The text of President Castro's reply to Minister Bowen is now before Secretary Taft, who has determined not to send it to the President, but to take it under consideration himself. It is said that the communication fits the description conveyed by Minister Bowen in his cable message as to the form of expression, which he declared to be insolent.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.] KANSAS CITY (Mo.) April 12.—The American Mercantile Association, alleged to be a "get-rich-quick" concern, with offices in a downtown office building, has been closed and this notice is posted on the door: "Good-bye, suckers: good-bye."

The whereabouts of the officers of the association is not known. The company's head office was at St. Joseph and from there a notice had been sent out to its subscribers announcing the suspension of the following words: "The officers of the American Mercantile Association take the means and nouns to you that the business of this corporation has been suspended, and that it will be unable to complete or carry out its contract with you."

When this notice was received by the Kansas City subcommittee, the majority of whom are laboring people, they hastened to the office of the American Mercantile Association, and many pitiable scenes were enacted. The subscribers had agreed to pay one dollar a week for eight weeks on promise that they would receive $100 at the end of that period. Many workers and laborers had been making payments for months past. One woman had paid $7.50 a week for sixty-six weeks and expected soon to receive $750.

As a matter of fact, the State Department has never been particularly strenuous in its efforts to force a settlement immediately of the Alcott case, which was the subject of arbitration, the State Department alone will be concerned. This is particularly true of an inquiry into the Venezuelan government as to whether the United States presumed to question the integrity of the Venezuelan courts, the inquiry being couched in rather vigorous language. It also appears that there is an expressed disposition on the part of the Venezuelan government to localize the issues by concentrating attention upon the Alcott case, which was the subject of arbitration in 1906.

Miller, a school principal, deposed two years ago on charges of gross immorality with other teachers, got a verdict for $14,500 today in her $50,000 damage suit for slander against Dr. Charles H. Harvey, formerly president of the Twenty-fourth Sectional School Board.

It was her two years study of law and the brilliant address she delivered to the jury in her own defense, while acting as her own counsel, that had much to do with the verdict. She had devoted most careful preparation to her case, and her strong plea not only amazed the lawyers who were present in the courtroom, but evidently greatly impressed the jury. She was forced to plead her own case, because no lawyer would take it.

After her deposition, Miss Miller studied law for the purpose of preparing on her own case and clearing her name.

MECHANICS OF GRAND OPERA MAKE AN EARLY AND PICTURESQUE START.

As the preacher talked of the religion of peace in Temple Auditorium yesterday afternoon an air of quiet, calm and rest spread through the whole of the vast building, and everything seemed still; yet within ten feet of Dr. Meyer, behind a painted canvas, lay a sweating electrician, flat upon his back, making fast the last connections on a huge stage dimmer that will control the myriad footlights of "Paradise," which are making ready to surround religion in colors with Hellenic legend in pictures and music.

While the choir was singing on the stage its familiar refrains of "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "Rock of Ages," a sturdy Italian mechanic, testing out the strength of the ropes gathered above stairs, was having a miniature concert of his own, but it was not a gospel hymn that he hummed. Unheeding the rest, "Chi mi frena in tal momento, chi mi fa fuggire," and before his eyes floated an image of the great Caruso leading the sextette in its immortal madrigal; had not he heard of Caruso these many months, and had he not killed time by getting him two tickets for this wonderful production of "Lucia"? No wonder he was happy!

EXTRAORDINARY WIRES.

To the casual eye, no change in Temple Auditorium is yet evident. It is still the big church, and the religious meetings go on as before. Behind the scenes, however, there are getting ready for the invasion of the greatest musical aggregation in the world, and brief inspection shows how careful and extensive are those preparations.

Of all the wires put up by the Los Angeles Electric Company, none are heavy enough to carry the extra weight required to be used by the Confind people in lighting the massive productions—heavy airings of new and unusually heavy copper wire are now being run into Temple Auditorium for this purpose.

Yesterday the placement of 15,000 feet of wire was begun, in the building of immense border lights, in which will be set five separate series of colored lamps.

They are making the setting for a big electric motor of thirty horse-power, which will be put in to facilitate the handling of the scenic effects.

Yesterday afternoon the completing touch was put on the large theatrical switchboard in Los Angeles, which will be used, of course, only during the two days of the operatic engagement. In addition to the large regular switchboard in the Temple Auditorium stage a new auxiliary has been built, holding eighteen large switches in triple connection, and three big general switches below these, three more in banks.

Three men paled and blazed the electric suns upon Sothen, when that great actor opened the Mason Operahouse in "I Were King," have received their final call to fame, and stand ready for the "stars" upon rows of incandescents which they will regulate.

WOMEN ON BIG JOB.

In a downtown establishment, women work all day sewing a pattern, acre-size, in snow-white canvas, which is to cover the entire ground floor of this great hall, where there are getting ready for the invasion of the greatest musical aggregation in the world, and brief inspection shows how careful and extensive are those preparations.

Of all the wires put up by the Los Angeles Electric Company, none are heavy enough to carry the extra weight required to be used by the Confind people in

COSTLY MAUSOLEUM AS BIG AS A HOUSE.

THINK of resting your bones in a $25,000 marble and polished granite mausoleum when the time comes for shunting off this mortal coil! At least one Angelino will have this consolation, and others will have the opportunity of gazing upon the handsomest structure of the kind in Southern California, one, it is said, second men will be required for six months on this mausoleum; and the contractors are required to have completed within that time. The granite work alone will cost $2,500. The foundations are to be laid in New Calvary cemetery at the northwest corner of the present improved section of New Calvary Cemetery, but the Catholic church owns whole exterior, and the interior, which will contain receptacles for sixteen bodies, will be finished in polished Carrara marble, white tile and glazed brick.

It is said this is the most extensive private undertaking in cemetery architecture ever contracted for in the Southwest, and that it will be sealed only by one structure in the State.

Mr. Higgins has been largely interested in mining enterprises in Arizona, but recently he has been making extensive purchases of Los Angeles realty, and it is said he is about to make his permanent home in this city. His residence is on Magnolia avenue.

only to the famous Stanford memorial in richness and beauty of design. This is the Higgins mausoleum, the contract for which has just been let to Lane Bros., and which will be placed in the New Calvary Cemetery on the highlands to the southeast of Boyle Heights. Thomas Higgins, the wealthy mine owner and extensive property holder of this city, is the man who will raise the beautiful memorial pile.

It is estimated that the labor of thirty the surrounding lands, which it is holding for cemetery purposes, so that the Higgins location eventually will be about the center of the tract. It is a slightly slope, probably the highest point in the neighborhood, and will be a prominent object in the landscape. The architect is A. L. Hale, and the plans call for a gray granite structure, including coping and walks. The entire improvement will be about 30x30 feet, and the mausoleum will be thirty feet high.

W. J. DOUGLASS, president, of Tonopah, is superintendent of the Tonopah Milling and Mining Company, which operates a reduction mill at Tonopah that cost $100,000. He is also heavily interested in a dozen mining ventures in Goldfield, Lida, Bullfrog and Tonopah, and has "cleared up" a million dollars in three years on these ventures. As fast as Mr. Douglass earns money he reinvests it in other properties that he has personally examined and found to be good "prospects."

JOHN S. COOK, treasurer, is the head of the well-known banking house of John S. Cook & Co. of Goldfield. Mr. Cook was for many years cashier of the Nye and Ormsby County Bank, with offices at Carson City, Tonopah and Goldfield, and when he recently announced the establishment of his own banking house in the center of Nevada's great mining district there was a rush among mining men to join his new institution.

W. H. LANG, secretary, Goldfield, is one of the rising young men of the district. He has established a reputation for sagacity, perspicacity and foresight in mining that has commanded the attention of every operator in the State. He is known to be on the inside track in all of his mining ventures. He has a big following throughout the country, who are accumulating fortunes under his leadership.

He Went Bleeding.

E. B. Porter, one of the proprietors of the Little Angelus restaurant on Spring street, grieved over marital trouble so much yesterday afternoon that he bled at the nose and ears. Porter sliced himself in his room at No. 444 South Spring street where he slept until he ruptured a blood vessel. His partner, Charles Bailey, suspecting something wrong, forced the door of the room at 7:30 o'clock last night and found Porter lying on the floor dead. He was talking incoherently of his wife. The man was sent to the Receiving Hospital where an examination showed that an abscess in the ear had proved the cause of death.

Porter and his wife had been separated several days ago and she left him. His condition is not considered serious.

Fake Alarm.

A ludicrous medical blunder occurred at the Burbank Theater yesterday during rehearsal. Miss Jessie Mae Hall, who was the woman with resultant excitement, Miss Blanche Hall, who had a sore throat, called in a physician. In diagnosing her case he used a clinical thermometer of the regulation build, forcing it to Miss Jessie's ear before using it and having her to wash it. She did so, and used hot water unthinkingly. The physician did not take hold of the lower end of the thermometer, and on looking in a few moments for his patient's temperature he discovered it to be running close to 106. Miss Blanche Hall was put to bed and another doctor summoned before the other young woman recovered presence of mind enough to see the thermometer and tell the physician the heat of the liquid she had used in cleansing.

Hilarious Old Man.

James Inverarity, an old resident of Vernon, boarded a Central-area car at Second and Los Angeles streets yesterday afternoon with a joyous feeling.

Conrad, 22, of the 10th, No. 342, in which Inverarity was a passenger, carefully watched the hilarious old man until he became convinced that the load carried by Inverarity was too much for the trolley car to haul. When the trolley stopped at the corner of 16th and Sixteenth street the conductor decided it was about time to throw some ballast overboard and the trolley was brought to a quick halt and Inverarity was transferred to the street.

Meatine Inverarity, his companion agains a seat and cut a deep gash across the top of his head. When the conductor grabbed the inebriate passenger, Inverarity tried to drag him from the car. Inverarity's right foot became entangled in the seat frame and was badly wrenches. The injured man was sent to the Receiving Hospital.

Estey Pipe Organs

We have recently placed two fine Estey Pipe Organs in Los Angeles churches. Church committees and others interested are especially requested to look into the merits of the Estey, and get particulars and specifications. One of these instruments will be on exhibition at our store rooms within the next few days.

We conscientiously claim that a $2500.00 Estey Pipe Organ will more volume and variety—on account of new methods of construction—than some other makes costing from $500 to $1000 more.

The value of the Estey reputation is as high in Pipe Organs as it has always been in Reed Organs.

Your presence is requested at the regular Victor rehearsal today at three.

One hundred and twenty-five members of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association sat down at an informal dinner at Levy's at 6 o'clock last evening. It lacked a few minutes or 10 when the toastmaster, Perry W. Weldner, dismissed them with a "merely good-night," a choice selection from his stock of celebrated smiles, and a benediction of the hand.

The subject of discussion was "Whither Are We Drifting? A Glimpse Into the Future of Los Angeles?" It was discussed in turn by H. W. Frank, D. A. Hamburger, Frank M. Coulter, Frank Simpson, E. P. Clark and George Stewart.

It is strange if the ears of Miss Los Angeles did not burn during the progression of those speeches. Mercantile gentlemen, who until now had never been suspected of dealing in anything so spirituelle, reeled off whole bolts of flattery-frilled atmospheric fabric faster than any yardstitch could have measured. They were a gathering of merchant courtiers, pouring out their adoration at the feet of the Southland queen; their fellows sat back and blew cigar smoke and clapped hands heartily.

Increase in territorial size, in population, in commercial bulk, in industrial areas, in land values, in particular and general prosperity—aye, and in real wealth—were the chief dividends of the wholesale and retail districts, marvels of climate, beauties of scenery, splendishness of geographical location with reference to both rail and sea, luxuriance of products, fertility of resources—aye, and rent of stores. And so on or another they told of Los Angeles.

WITNESSES EXCLUDED.
On motion of Mr. Hunsaker witnesses were excluded from the courtroom, to remain within distance to be called when wanted. This motion brought out the fact that the prosecution had seven or eight witnesses on hand, while the defense had subpoenaed none. The injured party's testimony will still be offered by the defense, unless it be that of Hook himself, this side of the Superior Court—for, in view of the evidence adduced at the Coroner's inquest, it is altogether probable that defendant will be held for trial.

Edgar D. Seaman of No. 124 North Avenue Twenty (a next-door neighbor of the Birtwistle family) was the first witness called. He was examined by Deputy McCamus. He described how, having been called to the scene of the accident, he found Margaret Birtwistle lying in the street, near the west end of Downey avenue and about one hundred feet south of the Auto Club building. He was appalled at once. She was insensible. By his direction she was carried to her home, No. 122 North Downey avenue, where a superficial examination showed a fatal fracture of the skull on the right side of the head at the juncture of the frontal and parietal bones, and a general bruised condition of the left shoulder.

DEATH FOLLOWS.
Miss Birtwistle was removed to the Receiving Hospital, Dr. Seaman riding with her in the patrol wagon. From the moment of the accident to the hour of her death, the following Tuesday night, she never regained consciousness. Heart stimulants were regularly administered to the patient, but she died at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. At the Receiving Hospital was too weak to allow of an operation. Ice bags were kept on her head all that night. Monday afternoon she was removed to the Good Samaritan Hospital, where she was received by Drs. Lasher, Quint, Cook, Fasig, Beckett, Moore, Seaman and other physicians.

"What caused her death?" Dr. Seaman was asked. The defense prosecutor first directed question in support of the charge of manslaughter.

"The injury to her head," replied the medical man; "the fracture of the skull, resulting from her being run over by the automobile."

TIRELESSLY.
The statistical report of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals for the month of March shows 148 cases investigated, 57 animals released and 27 animals destroyed. Forty-eight horses were suspended from labor; there were fifteen arrests, resulting in nine convictions, one acquittal and five cases still pending.

HEARING OF BARBEE HOOK.

Examination Continued for Making of Diagram.

The preliminary examination of Barbee Hook, son of the late millionaire owner of the Traction railway, who is charged with manslaughter in having run down with his automobile and killed Miss Margaret Birtwistle at No. 20 Avenue 20 and Downey avenue

car (No. 366) from which Miss Birtwistle alighted a few seconds before being struck, identified the defendant, Barbee Hook, and described the whirling of the young man's automobile from Avenue 22 "two minutes before the accident." His opinion the auto was running thirty miles an hour. This was brought out after a sharp but bloodless locking of horns by counsel. Van Horn noted that the course of the machine was down hill—a grade of about 40 per cent, he thought. He did not see Miss Birtwistle struck until he saw the automobile immediately afterward swerve sharply and crash into the west curb of Downey avenue, near Avenue 20. He got off his car and joined the small crowd of carmen huddled at the scene. Asked if he saw Barbee Hook at that time, he replied in the affirmative.

"What was he doing—did he make any statement?" asked the prosecution.
He was sitting cross-legged on the street, replied the motorman. "He put his hands up over his ears, this way, and cried 'My God!'"

The witness went up and looked at Miss Birtwistle, where she lay in the Receiving Hospital with chances for recovery decidedly in his favor.

Should Wilverton survive the shock of an unusual operation performed on his cranium, he will be an object of curiosity to the medical fraternity, as one of the most extensive operations of trephining ever undertaken in a local hospital was performed on Police Surgeon
Wilverton yesterday afternoon by Police Surgeons Quint and Bonyne and Dr. Frank Davis.

Together with E. Holman, Wilverton was engaged in hauling sand from the river below the Ninth-street bridge for Contractor Charles Stanbury. The men had loaded a big wagon and a trailer about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and were coupling the two together when the trailer bumped forcibly against the front wagon. Wilverton was bleeding profusely, and the two wagons collided and his head was caught between the front wheel of the trailer and the box of the front vehicle. A large portion of the man's skull was crushed by the force of the impact.

More dead than alive, Wilverton was hurried to the Receiving Hospital, where the surgeons hurriedly prepared for an operation. It was found that a portion of the skull was ruptured.

On cross-examination Mr. Hunsaker drew from the motorman the statement

Young Hook, the unkempt chaf-four, and witnesses in Birtwistle manslaughter case examined

that cars like those of the Downey-avenue line are geared to run twenty miles an hour, and that they frequently run that fast when outside the business district. There are no speed limits there," the witness remarked.

DIAGRAM NECESSARY.

G. W. McLeod, No. 1000 Wilde street, conducted the affair from which Miss Birtwistle alighted, was called. He had seen the accident, and described it. He thought Miss Birtwistle was struck about three seconds after stepping from the car, and he judged the automobile to be running twenty miles an hour. She was running at the rate of thirty-five or forty feet per second.

At this point the examination was adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning, to allow the preparing of a diagram
of the scene of the accident.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Councilmen are considering the advisability of calling a special election to decide whether the city shall issue $500,000 in bonds to secure funds for completing the outfall sewer system and erecting a library building.

MONEY NEEDED FOR SEWERS AND LIBRARY.

Council Committees Consider Proposal to Call Special Election to Vote on a New Bond Issue—Library Suit Not Forthcoming—May Rechristen San Pedro Street.

Members of the Sewer and Building Committee of the Council held a conference in their committee room at the City Hall yesterday afternoon to consider the advisability of calling a special election to vote on the issue of $500,000 in municipal bonds.

The Sewer Committee has under consideration a recommendation from the City Engineer that bonds be voted in the amount of $500,000 to complete the outfall sewer and the main lateral of the internal system of sewers.

The Building Committee is considering whether to ask the Council to include a proposal for a bond issue of $250,000 to erect a library building in Central Park.

Councilman Stafford insists that the bond election for the sewer money should be held as soon as possible for the reason that work is now delayed on the internal system on account of lack of funds. He says that the outfall will be of little value if it is not to be connected with the internal system.

An action affecting the construction of a library in the park has been delayed on account of a difference of opinion as to whether the city can erect public buildings in Central Park. The council board three weeks ago induced the Council to pass a resolution directing that space be cleared for a site for the building. It had been expected that the action would be taken to give the city a chance to enjoy the city from buildings in Central Park. No suit has been filed, however, and the Councilmen are considering the advisability of going ahead with the plan.

Opinion appears to be divided as to the rate of interest which the bonds shall bear. All the municipal bonds issued during the last five years bear interest at the rate of 5% or 6%. Last year owing to the dull bond market in the East the securities were marketed only after considerable delay. The school bonds recently issued bear 4%.

Vultures Gather.

Councilmen are being initiated this week into the mystery of fire-hose manufacturing and sale. Monday bids were opened for furnishing 5000 feet of the stuff for use in the fire department. Now that the bids are under consideration the City Hall is fairly overrun with agents representing the different brands. It is the first experience that six Councilmen have had with the fire-hose vultures. Some of them, like Bissell, have been through it all and are not visibly affected by the siege which they are compelled to undergo. The agents will all be given a chance to speak before the Supply Committee next Saturday morning.

More Brickbats.

Complaint has been made to members of the Sewer Committee that brick are being sold over the counter which are not equal to specifications. The bricks selected come from the Santa Monica yards of the Los Angeles Pressed Brick Company. They are said to be under strength.

City Engineer Stafford yesterday afternoon confirmed the report that the brick are under size. He said that they are in all other respects equal to those made by the other companies. The brick are under size," said the City Engineer. "This fact does not occasion any loss to the city." The company has agreed to deliver as many more as over the counter which are not equal to specifications.

Mr. Eisner, who has been a director of the small brick. That the brick are small is due to the fact that they are burned to a semi-vitrified state. In burning the heat is taken off the clay which is then lost.

What property his employee had, what is claimed, whether it was distributed among his wife and him.

"If Taylor does not know, and you do not know, who does know?" queried Marshall.

"Well, I can't tell that until I get your books," said Lowe.

"Then will you go over the books and from them make the statement?"

"It's doubtful if the books will show. As a fact no books in proper form have ever been turned over to me. I am not ready to take over the plant from the other company. The Independent is only in business as a distributor."

The greater part of the day had been consumed in the examination of the case of Lowe, the Independent Gas Company. Lowe said that there are no books and that the Independent is conducted on a cash basis.

To add to the gaiety of the afternoon Lowe here threw in a few things he didn't know. He couldn't say who he Huntington avenue as the most appropriate title. But there are scores of other property owners who object to the name. Tom Hays is the man with San Pedro street. Both sides are circulating petitions, and it will probably be up to the Council to affect some kind of compromise.

BUSINESS.

Signs of considerable strength and of marked weakness succeeded each other all day at New York, and the aggressive strength shown by a few stocks failed to overcome the skepticism and suspicion of traders. Bullishness was manifested in the Chicago wheat pit from the start. The market closed firm, with July at 87½/87¾ and May 1.18/2.

CASTRO'S HOT TALK.

Gen. Cipriano Castro, the President of Venezuela, is a small, dark man with a gleaming eye and a papery tongue. His naturally warm southern blood has been in a superheated condition almost since the first day he was boosted into power by his admiring and loyal countrymen, and just now the corpuscles in his veins are little short of seething, molten pebbles of burning lava. Castro proposes to run Venezuela in the interests of the Venezuelans, and makes no secret of it. He has nailed his flag to the masthead and has served notice on the whole world, including the United States, that he won't take water as long as there is a drop of anything else left in the cellar.

The principal trouble with Castro at the present time, however, is that he appears to be right. Therefore, the foreign vultures that have been plucking at the vitals of Venezuela for many years past, find it the more difficult to handle the fiery chieftain of our little southern neighbor. When he was wrong—and he has frequently been so—they could jump on him promiscuously and with the aid and sympathy of all their fellow-robbers and invaders. But Castro is evidently not wrong this time.

Venezuela is an exceedingly rich country in its resources, and its wealth has attracted fortune-seekers from the time of Pizarro down through the long line of buccaneers who sailed the Spanish Main, even to this very hour, when a buccaneer has merely changed his clothes and masquerades under a different name. European and American speculators and promoters have found Venezuela a productive field for operation in these modern times of soap-bubble schemes. They have gone into that country for the purpose of gutting her and leaving her behind them like a dried-up lemon skin with the pulp and the juice all squeezed out of it. And whenever they found that the people of Venezuela protested against their methods or took a stand against the illegal spoliation of their country, these alien corporations set up a howl for warships to come over to the golden coast of Venezuela and shoot great, wide, gaping holes through the anatomy of the natives.

What President Castro now proposes is that the courts of Venezuela and no foreign nations shall settle whatever disputes may arise between these corporations and Venezuelans. And it is good ground to take. It is ground that must be acknowledged the world until it shall be shown to the tenable that Venezuela's courts are either incompetent or dishonest, or both. It is ground that would be declared tenable in any other country, and why not in Venezuela?

It's hot talk that we are having from Gen. Castro, sure enough. But it is not hot, by a good deal.

WRONG IMPRESSION.

The impression appears to have gone abroad, to some extent, that the Supreme Court decision in the Davenport "recall" case, rendered a few days ago, touched upon the constitutionality of our charter amendment, known as the "recall," under which Mr. Davenport was ousted from a position to which he was legally elected, while a candidate illegally elected was allowed to occupy his seat in the Council. The Portland Oregonian, usually very accurate and well-informed, seems to have misinterpreted the Supreme Court's decision in the manner indicated. The Oregonian says:

"The California Supreme Court says the 'recall' is unconstitutional. The 'recall' is a handy device by which disaffected constituents of a City Councilman or other public officer may dismiss him from office without adopting the usual process of impeachment. On petition signed by a certain number of voters, he can be recalled after his regular term expires. It is obvious that the recall may be expensive, vexatious and altogether troublesome, both to the public and to the recalcitrant official. But the courts say that this is not the proper remedy; so the recall goes the way of other legislative fads."

Unfortunately, this is not true. The Supreme Court's decision failed to touch upon the vital question as to whether the "recall" amendment is constitutional or unconstitutional. It merely declared that the petition upon which the "recall" election was ordered was void because it did not contain the requisite number of names of voters whose names were on the Great Register. In other words, the decision was given upon a mere technical

'YOU MIGHT GO FURTHER,' ETC., HUH!

[Santa Ana Blade, April 6:] Gentlemen, gentlemen, do not pray do not let us go to the "recall." I make the remark: "I do not wish the Los Angeles Express left at my home any more." In a whole lot of instances the Blade had nothing to do with the matter of your recall. Express. It is seen you as a sort of Christmas present, so to speak. Just blame the Blade for what you see in the Blade and let it go at that. And then, there are only a few more days of the year after that, peace, blessed, thrice-blessed peace will again prevail. So do the best you can, folks, and try to stand the Express. You might go farther and farther west. You might have to take the Los Angeles Times.

THE LAND OF BLOW BUBBLES.

His curly are like rings of red gold on his head.

His lips are as red as a cherry, His eyes are as round as an apple, and red.

His eyes full of mischief and merry. His heart is as pure as a snowflake in air.

A song for the whole of his troubles!

For he's my boy Careless—you've seen him somewhere,

And he lives in the land of Blow Bubbles!

Now he's riding a stick that is legless and dead.

Through the lanes and across the mere stubbles.

For he's a boy a horse with four legs and a head.

In that magic boy land of Blow Bubbles.

He bears at his side a sword cut from

With a big wooden gun on his shoulder.

And woe to the wild beast that crosses his path.

For never a huntsman was bolder.

Now down from his steed leaps Boy Careless in haste.

He drops on one knee in the stubble.

For stubbles are woods full of wild beasts, all chased.

To their death by the boys in Blow Bubbles.

His pocket he brings to his shoulder and shoots.

The sound of it echoes and doubles.

For a make-believe gun kills the make-believe brutes.

In that magic boy land of Blow Bubbles.

Then out from the forest a savage red.

With blood-curdling yell leaps to battle.

A thrust from the big wooden sword—he is dead.

With a most melancholy death rat.

Then up from the ground lifts Boy Careless his horse.

And back o'er the all-trackless stubble.

For it's many a mile to his cabin, of course.

In the magic boy land of Blow Bubbles.

Oh, joy to the lad in his make-believe ride.

With the make-believe gun on his shoulder.

With the make-believe sword cut from

With his life, his side,

And a sigh from the heart that is older!

A whistle for Care from the harp of his lips.

A song for the whole of his troubles,

When he's off like the boy in his make-believe trips

In the magic boy land of Blow Bubbles.

The Hand-made Men.

Doubtless, it is this thought that induces Mr. Carnegie to take up the work of developing the smaller colleges.

He and the country both are to be congratulated on his choice—he, because his happiness lies in doing his work, and getting it done; the country because his money; and the country because the bread which he cast upon the waters will return in the future culture and competence of the American citizen.

Nor will his choice harm the great universities in the least. The good work of the colleges enlarges, not narrows, their field. The arrangement of the hand-made man is the attainments of his characteristic culture at a small college, to be followed by post-graduate work at a great university.—[New York Mail.]

TRIPLE CENSURE FOR UNIONS.

THIRD VICTIM OF STRIKE IN SAN BERNARDINO.

V. S. Dooley, the Suicide, Was in Good Standing Among the Odd Fellows in Washington State—Young Bell Freed and Arrested Again. Furniture Smasher Taken Again.

SAN BERNARDINO, April 12.—Word was received this morning from the Odd Fellows of Walla Walla, Wash., that V. S. Dooley, who committed suicide here yesterday, was in good standing in the order there, and also that he had $2000 insurance in another order. Acting upon this advice, the local Odd Fellows will have charge of the funeral, which will take place tomorrow afternoon at the parsonage of the local undertaker, Rev. D. MacGill, Gardiner of the Presbyterian Church.

Miss Dooley, the widow, has not recovered from the shock caused by finding her husband's body, and it is hardly likely that she will be able to attend the last services over his remains. The tragedy is rendered more lamentable on account of the results of the death of one of her children. It appears that the family came south two years ago that she and the child might escape, if possible, the ravages of consumption, of which numerous members of her family have already died.

The union labor agitators are roundly censured for the part which the Santa Fe strike played in bringing about this tragedy. It is declared that an attempt was even made to prevent Mrs. Dooley from lodging the new employee of the shops, which further harassed Dooley. The man, who was a member of the union, was denied the right to labor for the Santa Fe company. This is the second suicide occurring here as a direct result of strikes, and the other, dependent penniless strike's wife was driven to attempt suicide by the destitute condition of her family.

SAYS IT'S A YARN.

Attorney C. B. Morris denies the report wired from this city last night that he received a telegram from Goldfield concerning the finding of a body there supposed to be H. B. Morris of Colton. For several days an erratic miner has been hanging about the saloons here telling stories of his adventures. The Morris, who lost nearly Goldfield and a posse of forty men was looking for his body. This story is not credited, as Morris is at Searchlight alive and well, and the brother, C. B. Morris, has been seen near Goldfield, but is a resident of Victor. Both these men have been heard from. C. B. Morris states that he never received a telegram from Goldfield, and such a claim is reported announcing the finding of a corpse there has been received by any of his friends.

FREED AND TAKEN AGAIN.

Alfred Bell, who escaped punishment yesterday for forging a local attorney's name to a check, with which he purchased machine, was re-arrested this morning by Deputy Sheriff Ward on instructions from Los Angeles, where he is wanted for a similar offense. Bell is the son of Attorney Horace Bell of Los Angeles. He left the city yesterday with the intent to fall into the clutches of the officers here for a criminal offense, one other son having been arrested about three months ago for attempting to defraud a merchant. Alfred is a pitiable specimen of dope fiend. James McElroy, a boy of 14, like the spirit of famine and pestilence. When first arrested he was doubled up with rheumatism, having passed a long period in outhouses and barns.

SAN BERDOOR BRIEFS.

Alexander Salazar was committed to the State Hospital at Patton yesterday by Judge Biedase, having been examined and declared insane. Several weeks ago he was driving an eight-horse team attached to a plow when the horses ran away, throwing him on his head, since which time he has not been right. Recently he threatened to kill his uncle.

Harrison Bemis went on another "tear" this morning, breaking the furniture in his shack, an 18x24 foot afterward attempted to break his way into the home of a neighbor. He flourished a revolver when the police hove in sight, but readily surrendered without a fight.

The winning the will of the late Mrs. Ida Swarts of Colton, who died there recently, was filed for probate in the Superior Court. The estate is valued at $12,000, consisting of a ten-acre ranch, a house and two houses at Colton, besides personal property. The will bequeathes all the estate equally to the three children, and nominates their uncle, D. C. Swartz, as their guardian and executor of the estate.

COLTON AROUSED BY EARLY POP.

EXCITEMENT AFTER EXPLOSION NEAR A BANK.

Sound, which is Heard a Block Away, Leads to Conclusion That Attempt is Being Made to Blast Way to Treasure in Vaults—Husband and Son Disappear.

COLTON, April 12.—There was great excitement in the First National Bank building on J street early this morning. At about 1 o'clock the lodgers on the second floor above the bank were awakened by an explosion. People half a block away heard the unusual sound.

Immediately they concluded that an attempt had been made to dynamite a vault in the bank. The women in the building, terrified, rushed from room to room. Several men grabbed their shot guns and hurried to the porch in the rear where they could command a view of the back yard.

The night watchman arrived upon the scene and an investigation was made. To the surprise of all, no trace of dynamite or other explosive material was found to indicate that any attempt had been made to burglarize the bank. Nothing was found missing there.

What the noise was as yet unknown.

HUSBAND AND SON MISSING.

With tears streaming down her face—almost overcome with grief—Mrs. E. Kemp came to Colton this afternoon and, calling on the City Marshal, told a pitiable story. She was searching for her husband and her son, only 14 years of age, who yesterday disappeared from their home in Riverside and have not been seen since.

After nine hours of sleepless, and without any nourishment, the woman started this morning to search for the two. She went to San Bernardino and then came to Colton.

She says her husband often goes away for hours or long periods, and that she does not know where he is.

Kemp is a blacksmith by trade about 55 years old. It is believed that he is in Los Angeles. Officers are searching for the man.

The family has lived in Riverside about five months, having come there from Los Angeles.

CRAZY OVER POETRY.

A man partially crazy and well saturated with whisky, caused considerable excitement on North Eighth street this evening. He had been home to offer to molest no one, his strange actions and wild gestures as he loudly recited verses of poetry, frightened the residents.

He was taken into custody by the officers and was found to be a man of considerable learning. His home is in Redlands. He was sent there this morning.

COLTON SHORT ITEMS.

The following officers have been elected by the W.M.C.: Mr. Mrs. E. Wilkerson, president; Mrs. Mrs. Hartley, vice-president; Mrs. Mrs. W. C. Hether, recording secretary; Mrs. J. D. Rutherford, corresponding secretary; Mrs. M. C. Butterfield, treasurer; Mrs. Mrs. Merrifield and Miss Emma Wood.

Mrs. De Villo Robinson has been selected to represent Colton on the Reception Committee at the W.M.C.'s annual meeting of Southern California, to be held in San Bernardino on May 2 and 3.

S. Rogers of Downer's Grove, and Miss Ada Blanchard of Los Angeles, were elected yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Gilbert.

Miss Lillian Triplett and Miss Gertie Hamm, departed yesterday for Griggsville, Ill.

REDLANDS, April 12.—R. B. Knapp, a painter who resides in the Logandale section, committed suicide as the result of a telegram from the man's wife at Plainfield, N. J., stating that she will give instructions later. Her name is Margaret Andrade.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The annual meeting of the Congregational Women's Home Missionary Union and the southern branch Women's Board of Missions of the Pacific, recently appointed trustees, will be held at the Methodist Church on Friday, April 13, to acquaint his fellow-ministers with the advantages of Huntington Beach as the place for their Sunday-school picnics, and to make arrangements for those who are planning to attend the Methodist camping here this summer.

REDLANDS JOTTINGS.

The San Bernardino County Medical Society met yesterday at the Y.M.C.A. this evening. Dr. D. C. Strong of this city read a paper on appendicitis.

Grace Methodist Episcopal Church of Redlands yesterday filed articles of incorporation, the incorporators being George Iverson, Wm. G. Fine, E. M. Triplett, McKenney Phelps, W. H. Goodrich and A. Hatch.

DAME ACCUSED OF BATTERY.

SAID TO HAVE BEATEN HER FAIR NEIGHBOR.

Mrs. Maud Gilderman of Santa Ana is the defendant named in a complaint charging her with having violently smitten the face of Fair Miss Christian.

SANTA ANA, April 12.—Mrs. Maud Gilderman, one of Anaheim's fair matrons, is charged in a complaint issued from the District Attorney's office with battery upon the person of one of her neighbors, Miss Christian.

According to Miss Christian's story, Mrs. Gilderman circulated slanderous stories about her and when asked for an explanation of her conduct, the defendant is said to have replied, "I am in a present case, call me into." Miss Christian and battered her physiognomy. Miss Christian has black and blue marks on her nose and eyes as mute witness of the tellingly effect of Mrs. Gilderman's fists.

The trial will be held Monday.

SANTA ANA LOCALS.

The old Board of City Trustees met last night and canvassed the ballot of Monday's election. The results as previously announced, were found to be correct and the several trustees were declared duly elected. The new members of the board will assume their duties on Monday.

Santa Ana progress was made again today in the Gibbs liquor examination. With seven jurors when court adjourned last night, all morning today was taken up without securing any more, although the expectation was that the box would be full before the opening of tomorrow's session. With favoring circumstances, the trial should be completed tomorrow night.

A committee of volunteers for the hospital corps of the Seventh Regiment has been secured by the enlisting officers here and the men will commence training for their work at once. The mustering in of the corps here involves the mustering out of the former corps located in Los Angeles.

The Elks installed their new officers last night under the direction of Spencer K. Sewell, Past Exalted Ruler of the Pasadena Lodge. After the ritual a banquet was served and an ad lib. "our toast made by incoming and outgoing officers."

The funeral of the late W. H. Tedford, a member of the prominent family of the Newport district, took place today. Rev. George S. Clark of the Methodist South Church conducted the services.

FULLERTON, April 12.—H. S. Russell has on exhibition here a bunch of oats seven feet high and containing sixty-seven stalks. The whole was grown from a kernel. The bunch is a product of his Overlookethorpe place.

Associated Oil stocks again made the feature at yesterday's session of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, and the center of the stage was the exciting and often dramatic scene of the day. Subscribers to the California Journal of Finance, the leading financial publication of the brokers very quickly clannering for information of the market, the Produce Exchange broker on Tuesday sold 2,000 shares on the market, while the major centers yesterday were more or less quiet. Last evening there was no change in the market, the market centers have now gone home to roost, leaving only the brokers to do their work. It may yet be seen on the basis of what small number of shares traded on Tuesday that the market is still strong. Ten Associated bonds were quoted at 100 to 100 1/2, the small number of shares traded on Tuesday being 1,000 to 1,000 1/2. The produce market yesterday was dull and featureless, with a tendency to weakness.

THE WEATHER.

DAILY REPORT OF THE ORANGE MARKET.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK. April 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Under heavy offerings, the market here declined from 100 cents, depending on variety. There is still an active consumer demand, with unusually liberal sales, buyers having forced prices down. Warm summer weather has contributed to cause some improvement in distribution today, retailers taking larger lots than heretofore this week. Oranges arriving under ice are in good condition and bring good prices. The few remaining tops have ventilation arrive in poor condition generally, and frequently do not bring enough to cover the cost of transportation. Jobbers report a good movement in best qualities, with prices holding up well, notwithstanding receipts. Sicily lemons are 10¢/15 cents lower.
